ORU SIDDHAR - ORU KOVIL

WHICH WILL CONTAIN STORIES OF SIDHAR'S & TEMPLES OF INDIA

SWETHA VINAYAGAR TEMPLE THIRUVALANCHUZZHI

The Swetha Vinayagar Temple (Vellai Vinayakar Koil) is a Hindu temple situated in the village of Thiruvanchuzhi (also spelt as Thiruvanchuzhi) near Swamimalai in Kumbakonam taluk of Thanjavur district, Tamil Nadu, India. The presiding deity is Kapardiswarar, a form of the Hindu god Shiva and his consort Brihannayaki. (Periyannayagi) Pirugannayagi is seen in standing posture in a separate sannidhi. this temple with five tiered Raja Gopuram and five prakarams. Such specific structural arrangement is said to offer the unmarried with the marriage benefit and this sthalam is considered as auspicious to bless early marriage for the unmarried. The village got its name Thiruvanchuzhi because the trunk of the deity Pillaiyar is turned towards the right side. Another attributed reason is the river Kaveri when approaches the village takes a turn on the right side and then turn back to follow its course of flow. The deity Mahaganapathi is known as Swetha Vinayakar or Vellai Pillayar. There is a Purana story for the reason. Once Devas headed by Indira were cursed by sage Durvasa and lost all their glory and kingdom to Asuras. To regain the lost empire and strength they tried to churn the milky-ocean along with Asuras to get nectar. Since they did not perform the traditional Ganapathi Pooja, poison came out of the ocean in the beginning. Immediately, repenting the mistake, Indira collected the sea-foam (kadal Nurai) and made a pillaiyar and performed the required pooja and succeeded in their attempt. The present pillaiyar at the temple is said to be the same pillaiyar to whom Indira performed pooja and left in Thiruvanchuzhi for the benefit of others. It is believed even today Indira comes and performs pooja on the auspicious day of Pillaiyar chaturthi. During the darshan you can observe the white pillaiyar appears to be made of sea-foam measuring around 10 inches at the gurbagiraha. Unlike the other temples no abishekam is performed to the moolavar of main deity. The priest will sprinkle boreneol (pachaikarpoom) over deity without touching it. Since the priest don't touch the deity this pillaiyar is also known as 'theendath thirumeni'. Only punugu is used to decorate the pillaiyar. In a separate sannidhi located in the inner prakaram a beautiful Murugan with six faces, twelve hands is seen seated on peacock, while his wives Valli and Deivayanai are seen in standing posture beside him Ashtabuja Kali with her eight hands is seen in a separate sannidhi. The Kalabairavar sannidhi is located on the outside prakaram. Apart from a Navagriha sannidhi there is a separate Sannidhi for Sani Bagavan. It is stated in the puranas that Uma, vishnu, Brahma, Indiran, Athishesan and Heranda Muni had been to this temple to offer their prayers. The thala viruksha of this temple is Vilva tree. Important days. The Pillaiyar chaturthi that comes in the Tamil Month of Avani is celebrated in a grand manner. The other festivals that are celebrated in the temple include Mahasivarathiri, Thiru Karthigai and other festivals. During a particular day every year the temple is closed in the afternoon to facilitate Indira to perform pooja at the sannidhi of Pillaiyar. On that day the priest will leave all the items that are required to perform the pooja and close the temple. Kozhukattai and chakkarai pongal are offered as important neivethyam to the deities.

Temple Timings : Morning 6.00 AM to 12.00 PM | Evening 4.00 PM to 8.00 PM

Temple Address: Arulmigu Valanchuzhinathar Thirukkivil Thiruvanchuzhi, Close to Swamimalai, Kumbakonam Circle, Tanjore District

DEVI MAYAMMA OF KANYAKUMARI

In the holy shore of Kanyakumari, where the three oceans meet, there once lived a great soul. Some called her Amma, others called her Devi, sages called her Mother of the World. That was Devi Mayamma of Kanyakumari, one of the greatest Avadhootas of recent times. No one knows when Mayamma first appeared on the sea shore. She walked on the hot sand, unaware of the heat or hunger. She was often seen swimming in the ocean or sitting on slippery rocks among the waves. Devotees who flocked to see her would wait for hours till she returned laughing from the sea. On land she was always surrounded by a pack of adoring dogs. She fed them whatever scraps of food she found, and with the same joyful look in her eyes, fed people too. Amma would collect cigarette butts, wet sea-weed and soaking plantain stems that littered the beach and miraculously set them ablaze into a crackling fire at night. Amma never claimed to be anything special. But everyone who came to her was enveloped by the mysterious waves of kindness and compassion which flowed from her gaze. Many claim to have been freed from incurable diseases by Amma's grace. Many others claim to have been blessed with prosperity and happiness by her boons. Amma had her curious ways too. She would step into any one of the seaside teashops, grab the idlys in the trays and hurl them out on the street for her dogs to eat. Shopkeepers would wait at dawn with baited breath hoping that Divine Mother would step into their shop first. It would be roaring business that day, they claim. Sri Satya Sai Baba, Mata Amritanandamayi, Sankaracharya Sri Chandrasekhara Saraswathi, Mouna Guru of Northern India, Jaggi Vasudev, Maestro Ilayaraja, Yogi Ramsuratkumar and other well known holy persons have sought Devi Mayamma's blessings and urged their devotees to visit her. Renowned Avadhoots like Sri Koti Swamigal and Sri Poondi Mahan have praised her as the Mother of the Universe. She was also visited by President Zail Singh and other dignitaries. And then one day in 1986, Devi Mayamma disappeared from Kanyakumari! Where did she go? Where is she now? Devi Mayamma left Kanyakumari along with her faithful attendant and disciple Rajendran. Sri Rajendran used to look after her like a loving son. She moved to Salem (5/184, Mayamma Kovil, Santhi Nagar, Chinnakollapatti, Salem-636008.) and settled into a little house with Sri Rajendran, his wife and three children. She lived in that beautiful place on the outskirts of the pleasant hill station of Yercaud for six long years. Rare and fortunate devotees sought her blessings there till she finally gave up her earthly form in Maha Jeeva Samadhi. Devi Mayamma passed into Maha Jeeva Samadhi on the day of Sashti on the 9th of February, 1992. A beautiful Jeeva Samadhi Mandir has been built for her there and devotees visit this holy shrine today. Every year, on February 9th, Samadhi Day is celebrated. Sri Rajendran, Amma's devoted disciple looks after the Samadhi shrine. The peaceful and silent beauty of the Samadhi Mandir is ideal for Dhyanam and Japam, which are the surest ways to obtain the grace of the Divine.
