Dear readers
Subamuhurthamnews Is Introducing A New Column Called Oru Siddhar Oru Kovil Article Which Will Contain Stories Of Sidhar's & Temples Of India.

YOGI RAMSURATKUMAR YOGI RAMSURATKUMAR JAYA GURU RAYA

FATHER ALONE EXISTS. NOTHING ELSE. NOBODY ELSE.

There is no need for any Japa or Dhyana for you. You are in the company of this Beggar all the time. So you are doing tapas all the time. Your Service to this Beggar will do. Transformation is going on all the time. The greatest Tapas for any one is to stay near one`s Guru and do service to Him. But very few are given this chance

Yogi Ramsuratkumar (December 1, 1918 – February 20, 2001) was an Indian saint and mystic. He was also referred to as "Visiri samiyar" and spent most of his post enlightenment period in Tiruvannamalai, a small town in Tamil Nadu which is famous for attracting spiritual seekers worldwide and has had a continuous lineage of enlightened souls. He acknowledges the contribution of three of the most well known saints of his time in his evolution to enlightenment. These individuals were Sri Aurobindo, the founder of Integral yoga, Ramana Maharshi, one of the "spiritual supermen" of his time, and Swami Ramdas, Yogi's eventual guru. Yogi Ramsuratkumar was born in a village Naradara, Lalganj, Ballia-277216 (U. P.) near Kashi on December 1, 1918. In his childhood, he loved very much to meet the yogis and monks. He was befriended by a number of holy men who built their huts on the Ganges shore or simply wandered nearby. He grew up as a Grihasta but eventually, the tugs of spirituality in his heart took over. In search of his "guru", he visited and spent time in the ashrams of both Sri Aurobindo and Ramana Maharishi. He later moved to Kerala at the ashram of Swami Ramdas. In his own assessment, Sri Aurobindo gave him Jnana, Sri Ramana Maharshi blessed him with tapas and Swami Ramdas gave him the nectar of Bhakti. Swami Ramdas initiated him into the holy mantra : " Om Sri Ram Jai Ram Jai Jai Ram ", by pronouncing it thrice in his ears. Yogi Ramsuratkumar often refers to this instance as his "death", since from this moment on, his ego no longer existed, and he had a profound spiritual experience. Yogiji travelled across the country from 1952 to 1959. Not much is known about the exact whereabouts of the yogi in this period. He finally reached Tiruvannamalai in the Southern India in 1959. He was a "hidden" saint during this early period, with not too many individuals realizing that this "beggar" was someone who would bring riches to the lives of countless many. He was seen near the Temple chariot, at the corners of the Road, under the trees of the Temple. As more and more people started acknowledging the divine presence in him, Swamiji then began living in a small house in Sannadhi Street beneath the Temple. He continued to bless the devotees who thronged at thousands to his house at the Sannadhi Street. At a point, his devotees became too many to be handled in a small house and the devotees wished him to have an Ashram which he gently accepted after much persuasion for the sake of his devotees. The Yogi Ramsuratkumar Ashram is constructed at Agrahara collai with a total area of 3.5 Acres. Bhagwan Yogi Ramsurat Kumar Ashrama Punaruddharana Mahakumbabhishekam held in a Grand Manner on 25th March 2016 between 6.15 – 7.15 AM, Several Thousand Devotees thronged ashram to view this special event and for divine blessings

SREE VIDYA AMIBIGAI SAMEDHA BHEEMESHWARA TEMPLE (PARIHARA FOR MARRIAGE)

It is said that, if one ties yellow turmeric thread to the steel rods around the sanctum, their prayers will definitely be answered and their children would soon get married. Many have obtained these blessings and after marriage they come here to remove the thread and offer an Abhishekam to the lord as a token of gratitude. Since each thread has been given a unique number they can be identified easily. It is said that this place became famous due to the couple Kameshwaran-Vasuki, who got married here. Kameshwaran was a Shiva devotee. He had found a Shivalingam and started worshiping it in a small shrine here. Another man called Vishwam also lived in the same village with his adopted daughter Vasuki. Kameshwaran and Vasuki wanted to get married but Vishwam was against it. Due to Kameshwaran and Vasuki's sincere prayers to Lord Shiva, He appeared before Vishwam in disguise of the temple Gurukal and asked him to bring Kameshwaran and Vasuki to the temple. Since Vishwam could not go against the words of the Gurukal he got them married in the shrine. Lord Shiva and Parvathi appeared before them and gave their blessings to the couple, who were spell bound seeing them. And hence the place came to be known as Manamudichanallur(a place where marriage happens). As years went by, this place came to be known as Mudichur. Even today, hundreds of eligible men and women go around the Nagapeetam outside the temple and also tie yellow threads around the Sanctum praying for their successful marriage. The Shivalingam worshipped by Kameshwaran was called Parameshwaran, after the avatar Lord Shiva took to get them married. Slowly he came to be known as Bheemeshwara which is how he is referred to today. The Goddess is a manifestation of the three devis and is called SriVidyambigai. The temple is a good example of Shaiva - Vaishnava unity. The temple complex houses Sridevi Bhoodevi Samedha Damodhara Perumal. It is believed that Saint Ramanuja had given a Pravachanam here on his way to Shriperumbudur. Today the small temples of both Perumal and Shiva are well maintained with a number of flowering plants all around the shrines. Karthigai Deepam festival is a very important festival in this temple. Lighting of Sokka Panai and Theppam Festival happen during the month of Karthigai. The tank is large and is fenced to prevent people from bathing in the deep waters. There is a Hanuman shrine to the opposite of the Perumal sanctum, and a small shrine for Garudalwar in front of the ancient lamp post. The left side of the temple complex is made up of the Vidyambigai Samedha Bheemeswarar temple and the shrines found around it are Vinayaka, Muruga, Navagraha, Chandikeshwara, Durga, Bhairava and Chandran. Most of these idols are made from Natural Moon Stone (Chandrakanta Stone) and hence are unique in their own way. Worshipping Chandra made from Chandrakanta stone is said to rid one of all doshams. A few metres away from the temple, is a huge Peepal Tree (Aala maram). Big enough to shoot Panchayat scenes in Tamil movies. Under the Peepal Tree, is a shrine for Aalavatta Amman, a frontier Goddess for this region. The official timings of the temple are 7 am to 10 am in the mornings and 5 pm to 8 pm in the evenings, :Sri Vidhyambhika Siva Vishnu Temple, Mudichur, Chennai – 600 048."
