IDAIYATRUMANGALAM

First in the list is Mangalambikai Sametha Sri Mangaleeshwarar Temple.

As the name suggests, "Mangalyam" means Thali and so it's clearly the apt temple for marriage boon.

The temple is near a place called Lalgudi that is around 22Kms from Trichy bus stand.

Unmarried women born in Uthira Nakshathiram visit this temple to clear away the hurdles causing the delay in marriage.

Here, we have a deity of one of the divine rishi named "Maangalya Maharishi" who was born on UthiraNakshatram. He is considered to be the guru of all Devas and the one who blesses them on their wedding with Akshathai (Turmeric coated rice).

It is also told that he is the person who decides the auspicious time for their marriage. He offers his prayers to Lord Maangaleeswarar every day to strengthen his power. Women who seek the blessings for their marriage will have to light Ghee lamp in front of Maangalya Maharishi. Once the marriage is fixed, the first marriage invitation will be kept at the divine feet of Mangalya Maharishi in order invite him to grace their marriage. So, it is so clear that one, who seeks to get married, must visit this sthalam.

MARRIAGE BOON TEMPLES IN SOUTH INDIA

Sri Sishta Guru Natheshwarar Temple – Tiruthalur The next significant temple for marriage boon is the Sivaloka Nayagi sametha Sishta Gurunathar temple. The temple is located in the place called Tiruthalur in Cuddalore district. The main deity is Lord Shiva in the form of Lingam and is known by the names Sishta Guru Natheshwarar / Thava NeriAaludayar. The Goddess is Poongkodhai / Sivaloka Nayaki.

The Sthala Purana says when Saint Sundarar was traveling towards this place (Tiruthalur) from Thiruvannainallur, Thenpennai river was flowing in between and so he could not reach this place. So he sang Thevara Padal about Lord Shiva from the other bank of the river. Being impressed by the hymns, the God and the Goddess came in the disguise of an elderly couple and helped Sundarar to cross the river in a small boat. Once he reached the other shore, the Lord Shiva hid Himself and Sundarar could not find Him. The old man came and told Sundarar that the person whom he is searching for is right above him. As he said, Sundarar had a darshan of Lord Shiva and Goddess Ambika on Rishaba Vahana on the Gopuram of the temple. Sundarar pleaded lord Shiva to teach him the lessons on Tapas (penance). So Lord Shiva imparted his teachings at this sthala and so the Lord is known as Sishta Guru Nathar / Thava Neri Aaludayar. Another Sthala Purana says that, when the wedding of Lord Shiva happened with Goddess Parvathi in Mt. Kailash,

Lord Shiva ordered the Sage Agasthiyar to travel to the South direction in order to balance the level of the earth (Since everybody has moved to North to witness the Grand wedding !!). During this travel, the sage Agasthiyar installed Shiva lingam and Goddess Ambikai at various places throughout his route. In this sthala too, he installed Shiva Lingam facing the West direction and the Ambikai facing the North direction (Since the wedding is taking place in the North). This form of North facing Goddess is a very rare one. This place is also a Guru sthalam and special poojas are performed for Lord Shiva and Guru Dakshina Murthy to get rid of Marriage Doshams. People who seek the blessing for their marriage, light the Ghee Deepams and do Vilva Archanai for 7 weeks. It is strongly believed that by doing so, all the doshas of marriage will get cleared and the marriage will be fixed soon.
