Sundhareswarar Temple, Kovur - Budhan Sthalam, Chennai Navagraha Sthalam

Kovur, a tranquil haven near Chennai city, holds a rich historical secret between the well-known areas of Porur and Kundrathur, this village is home to the magnificent Sundareswarar temple, dedicated to Lord Shiva.

- God - Sundareswarar or Tirumeneswarar Goddess - Soundarambikai or Tiruvudai Nayaki

- Teerth (Holy Water) - Shiva Ganga Teerth Sthala Vruksha (Holy Tree) - Bilva

- It is a Budha sthalam and one of Navagraha sthalams of Chennai Saint Sri Thyagarajar had sung hymns on the presiding deity of this temple, which is very rare as he had sung mainly about Lord Ram

Legend has it that Goddess Kamakshi embarked on a rigorous penance, standing amidst the Panchagni's scorching flames. The intense heat tormented the surrounding areas, causing immense suffering to the people. In response to the pleas of the Devas, who sought relief from the blaze, Lord Shiva was approached. However, He remained deeply immersed in meditation.

At this critical juncture, Vishnu advised his consort, Lakshmi, to descend to the site that would later become Kovur. Lakshmi assumed the form of a cow and fervently prayed to the Shiva Linga at this location. Her divine intervention stirred

Lord Shiva from His meditation, instantly cooling the overheated surroundings. In honor of Lakshmi's transformation into a cow (the word "Go" meaning cow), the place came to be known as Gopuri, eventually evolving into Kovur.

Another captivating legend connects Kovur to the renowned saint, Sri Tyagarajar, who was passing through the village in a palanquin on his way to Tirupati. Initially, he bypassed the temple without halting or paying it a visit. However, as fate would have it, a gang of robbers set their sights on Tyagarajar's palanquin.

In a moment of dire need, two mysterious individuals suddenly materialized and hurled stones at the assailants, driving them away. Tyagarajar firmly believed that Lord Rama and Lakshmana had personally come to his aid. Touched by this divine intervention, he retraced his steps to Kovur, where he visited the temple of Lord Shiva. Overwhelmed by gratitude, Tyagarajar composed five songs dedicated to Sundareswarar, an exceptional departure from his usual focus on Lord Rama.

It is also believed that Sekkizhar, a revered figure from the nearby Kundrathur locality, commenced writing the Periya Puranam, an ancient Tamil hagiography, within the premises of this temple.

This temple, a relic from the Chola period, is a testament to its historical significance. It is believed to have been built during the reign of Kulotunga Chola II.

Sri Tyagaraja Swamikal, a prominent saint, composed the Kovur Pancharatnam, a collection of songs dedicated to Sundareswarar. This is a rare instance where the renowned saint deviated from his usual focus on Lord Rama to sing praises of another deity. You Can Visit Sundha-reswarar Temple, Kovur - budhan Sthalam, Chennai navagraha sthalam

N Mada St, Kovur, Chennai, Tamil Nadu 600128

Sri Gnanaparameswarar Swamy Temple at Naalur Mayanam (Thirumeignanam)

Naalur Mayanam is situated at a distance of about 16 kms from Kumbakonam on the Kumbakonam to Kudavasal route (Via Thirucherai). After reaching Kudavasal, take diversion road from Athikadai bridge to Naalur and proceed further for about 2 kms to reach this place.

Moolavar-Sri Gnanaparameswarar, Sri Mayanathu Paramaswamy, Sri Mayanathu Moolathanathu Peruman Ambal-Sri Gnanambigai

It is believed that this temple was originally built in the early Chola period and later on it was built using granite by Aditya Chola-I. This is one of the 276 Devara Paadal Petra Shiva Sthalams and 96th Shiva Sthalam on the Southern bank of the river Cauveri in Chozha Nadu (Thenkarai).

Lord Shiva in this temple is a Swayambumurthi (self-manifested).

This east facing temple has no main tower (Rajagopuram) but has a beautiful entrance with sculptures of Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvathy. Other than the shrines of Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvathy, shrines and idols of Vinayagar, Murugan, a few Nagars, Chandikeswarar (2), Dakshinamurthy (2), Athma Lingam, Saneeswarar, Bairavar, Suryan and Navagraham can be seen in the hall and the corridors.

There is a separate shrine for Saint Thirugnanasambanthar in the main hall. Shivalingams in the names of Sri Amirthakadeswarar, Sri Sattanathar, Sri Ekambareswarar and Veezhiazhagar can also be seen in the corridor.

In the "koshtam" (place surrounding the sanctum sanctorum), idols of Vinayakar, Pitchandavar, Natarajar, Karaikkal Ammaiyar, Dakshinamurthy, Mahavishnu, Brahma and Vishnu Durgai can be seen.

It is believed that a snake comes to this temple occasionally and wraps itself around the head of Shivalingam. Interestingly, while prising the lord of this temple, Saint Thirugnanasambanthar mentions the following line - "Paaloorum malai paampum panimadhiyum.....". This means that the lord here is seen with a big snake. Significant of this temple is Devotees pray to the lord here for removal of obstacles from their marriage proposals. They also pray to the lord such that they may be blessed with success in their educational pursuits and prosperity in their lives.

Sri Gnanaparameswarar Swamy Temple, Thiru Naalur Mayanam (Thirumeignanam), Inchikollai Via, Thirucherai Post, Kumbakonam Taluk, Tanjore District, Tamil Nadu - 612 605.
